

Get active for Less – Group Concessionary Rate

Terms and Conditions

1. The Get active for Less Group Concessionary Scheme is open to organisations within the City of Aberdeen only, who deal specifically with groups of individuals who fall within the eligibility criteria of the Get active for Less scheme. For example, organisations who deal with individuals that are on low income; have physical, sensory or learning disabilities or whose clients require a high level of staff support when attending sport and leisure facilities.
2. A maximum of six Sport Aberdeen cards can be issued to a group. One card will allow up to six individuals at any one time into the facilities at the discounted rates.
3. The Organisation/Group Name will be printed on the Sport Aberdeen card. No photographs are required for group cards.
4. The Concessionary Rate access is valid for One Year. It is the responsibility of the organisation/group to re-apply for the Get active for Less scheme before it expires.
5. When not in use, all Sport Aberdeen cards must be kept in a safe and secure place within the organisation.
6. Lost or stolen cards should be reported immediately to memberships@sportaberdeen.co.uk.
7. The Group Get active for Less Scheme entitles staff and clients together to use sport and leisure facilities at reduced rates.
8. A group's current access to the scheme cannot be used as evidence of eligibility for purchasing individual memberships at discount rates.
9. Clients of an organisation within the Scheme may use the cards on an individual basis without organisation staff.
10. Members of staff or volunteers are not permitted to use the Group cards on an individual basis at any time.
11. Any misuse of cards may result in the Group's access to the scheme being withdrawn.
12. Any changes to an organisation's details must be reported to getactiveforless@sportaberdeen.co.uk
13. Privacy Policy
